

Scenario 1: Ahmet with his family before the war came to his home. He is with his mum, dad, little sister and his cat. Ahmet likes playing football and he loves his family.

Scenario 2: Ahmet is told they need to leave, so he packs his favourite belongings into a bag. He can hear guns and bombs outside.

Scenario 3: Ahmet walks for miles with his family, through mountains and tough terrain.

Scenario 4: Ahmet, his mum and his dad finally reach the boat. His sister and his cat is not with them. It is a small boat, full of lots of other people. Everyone is wearing a life jacket. The waves are choppy; the sky is dark. Some people have even fallen into the water.

Scenario 5: Ahmet and his family finally arrive in Greece. Ahmet and his father are sent to a refugee camp. There are lots of other refugees in tents. Ahmet's mother, sister and cat is not with them.

Scenario 6: They finally reach a place where there are uniformed people with guns protecting the border. The people are pointing their guns at the refugees. There are tall fences with barbed wire on the top. The people with guns shout at Ahmet and the other refugee.

Scenario 7: Ahmet is alone. He is brought into a new classroom. He is directed to take the seat at the back of the class. Everyone else in the class is staring at him.